Did You Transition from a Year-Round to Traditional Calendar Schedule This Year?

For anyone who transitioned this year from a year-round to traditional school year calendar, they will receive an additional 14 days of pay in a separate paycheck on a July 10th paycheck.

Employees who switched school year calendars from year-round to traditional worked more days than normal in the 2020-2021 work year. A typical work year has 184 workdays within the district's fiscal calendar, which runs July through June. Because year-round calendars straddle two fiscal years (the 14 days worked in July at the end of one school year actually fall in the district's new fiscal year that begins in July), those workdays in July are applied towards the employee's salary earned in the new fiscal year. This means if you switch to a traditional calendar (starts in August and runs through June) from year-round, you will earn 14 extra days pay in the new fiscal year. This means you get paid for 198 days of work, rather than the usual 184 days. The extra workdays above the 184 occur in June, so that is why the money is paid out in July.
